

VENABLE REPORTS GREAT PROGRESS

Says This Is Best Year in History of University of North Carolina.

NEW BUILDINGS PLANNED
Former Presbyterian Preacher
Ordained Into Baptist Ministry.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., February 4.—The trustees of the University of North Carolina were in session four hours yesterday in the executive office of Governor Kitchin, it being the regular annual session of the board, with a very large attendance. The annual report of President F. P. Venable was presented, and it showed very gratifying progress along all lines. The enrollment for this year is 181, and Dr. Venable pronounced the work being done the very best in the history of the university. There is an exceptionally large amount of personal research work being done by the faculty, and the university is making great progress in the study and investigation of the history of the university this year are reported to be much in advance of any previous year.

It was decided to hold a big celebration on the occasion of the opening of the new medical building in May on a date to be determined later. It is to be known as Caldwell Hall, in honor of the first president of the university. The building is to be completed during the present month. Two other new buildings are to be completed during the present year, one at a cost of $200,000 for the school of education, provided by the General Education Board. The university is to support the school at a cost of about $50,000 per year, also it is expected that a dormitory of three sections will be completed by September. The contract has been awarded and the work is getting underway.

Professor E. K. Graham was chosen a member of the board of trustees of the university. The trustees voted to purchase 100 copies of the forthcoming "History of the University" by Dr. F. P. Venable.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The board adopted a resolution abandoning claims of right by ecclesiastical bodies in the university. In the case of the Presbyterian ministry, having been the church of the Presbyterian ministry for some time, up to two years ago, and more recently of the Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., which is now living. Rev. Livingston Johnson, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Convention, delivered the charge as to the duties of the ministry and the church. The church of the Presbyterian ministry, and Rev. H. C. Moore, editor of the Baptist Record, presented the Bible to the candidates. The ordination prayer was offered by Dr. O'Connell, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Steinway Pianos, Pianola Pianos, Victrolas

And everything in the way of Musical Instruments.
Terms very easy.

Walter D. Moses & Co.
103 E. Broad St.
Oldest Music House in Va.
and N. C.

dent. Captain Sherrill is State Librarian.

Policeman Barbour, who was shot right seriously by a negro several weeks ago, is able to resume patrol service, and the Raleigh Aldermen are to pass on the question as to whether it is up to the city to pay a bill for his treatment, which Rex Hospital has rendered against the city. The Aldermen appropriate $2,000 every year toward the maintenance of the hospital, city's charity patients, and the Aldermen are inclined to insist that the treatment of injured policemen under circumstances such as was Barbour's case, should be included. It is figured out that on the basis of the number of charity patients treated for the city, the hospital receives at the rate of about $5 per day for the care of the charity patients.

WOMAN REACHES CENTURY MARK

Celebrates 100th Birthday by Eating Hearty Meal With Grandchildren.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Harrisonburg, Va., February 4.—Yesterday 100 years ago, Mrs. Bridget O'Donnell, now of Harrisonburg, was born in Mayo county, Ireland. She celebrated her 100th birthday this morning by rising early and eating a hearty meal with her grandchildren, who, as usual, had to lead her to the table on account of her impaired eyesight. Until she was ninety-eight years of age she never had any use for a physician; then she fell and broke her arm and a doctor was called in. Little more than five feet tall, she weighs about 135 pounds and inherits her remarkable constitution from a long-lived family. Her defective hearing makes it difficult to enjoy the company of her friends as of old. Unlike many old people she has never acquired the habit of smoking. For many years she has been a devout member of the Catholic Church. It has been ten years since she was able to walk out to Main Street, though she can get about the house and does not like for people to suggest that she is getting old. She has a sister, Mrs. Katherine Nolan, of Inkman, Pennsylvania, who is ninety-three years old. She has outlived all of her children. Her oldest child died two years ago, aged sixty-seven. Among her grandchildren are Dan, Carrier, Dan, O'Connell, Hugh O'Donnell and Miss Sadie O'Donnell, all of Harrisonburg.

Dent-Tugle.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va., February 4.—Miss Ople Tugle and B. Gwynn Dent were lately married at 8 o'clock last evening at the parsonage of the Episcopal Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. J. Cutler, pastor. Mrs. Dent will reside in Washington.

Ground Limestone Facts For Legislators

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?
Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

Do you know that the modern method of manufacturing burned lime makes it as convenient, easy and harmless to handle as ground limestone?

Do you know it is more economical for the farmer to use burned lime than ground limestone?

BUSY WEEK AHEAD FOR LAWMAKERS

Antigambling Bill, Back From the Grave, Will Be Up in House To-Day.

WORKING ON APPROPRIATIONS

Institutions Will Get Little.
Woman Suffrage Comes Up
Wednesday.

During the past week the death of one bill and the resurrection of another have been events in the Legislature. The measure providing for tax equalization has been slain and is merely awaiting cremation. Its demise is admitted by even the most sanguine of the physicians who attended it. Up from the graveyard has come the Stephenson antigambling bill. It was merely sleeping. This bill was one of the first to emerge from committee, and came up when the House of Delegates and the Senate were in consideration consumed most of its time. Clerk John W. Williams gave it the number of thirteen, and it has had hard luck ever since. After bravely fighting the measure through the period, it was recommended to the Committee on General Laws, "to be recast." There Mr. Stephenson followed it, and tried to revivify it. He made one unsuccessful effort to get the committee discharged. At last a measure came back from committee, which was said to be the Stephenson bill. The patron looked at it and failed to recognize it. True, it was No. 13, and the enacting clause looked familiar, but otherwise there were no points of similarity.

This proposition, which in its present shape merely forbids playing for any amount of money, and which no longer prohibits betting or conducting church raffles, is at the head of the column, and coming up to-day in the House. Mr. Stephenson will try to restore its former beauty and symmetry. Failing in this he will try to get it through as it is. He says there will be a roll call, anyway. There will probably be some oratory.

Other Events of Week.
Another funeral is set for Thursday at 12:30, when Hill Montague will plead for equal suffrage for women. He has promised to make the obsequies short.

Other special orders for the week are the amendments to the Constitution permitting city treasurers and commissioners of the revenue to succeed themselves, in the Senate to-day, and the rolling stock bill in the House on Wednesday.

Aside from these propositions, the week in the two houses will probably be devoted to the disposition of a great deal of local and uncontented business. With the gambling bill out of the way, there will follow in the House a long list of measures which will involve interminable roll calls. Since all House bills now on their third reading have been covered on their passage under rules which permit one objection to pass a bill, it is improbable that any one will be contested, excepting the treating bill, which got through at the time by mistake, and on which there will be a fight.

Within a day or two the House will have cleared away this material, and will again reach second reading bills. Near the head of the calendar in this division is the woman's college bill, which will arouse a debate. Not since anybody can remember, has so much work been done in committee up to this early point in the session. Among the bills before the Senate are the calendar, the woman's college bill, and the rolling stock bill. As a result of this activity, the Senate calendar is also well filled, largely with House bills approved by Senate committees.

Work on Appropriations.
It is probable that actual work on the preparation of the general appropriation bill will be begun to-day by subcommittees of the Senate and House. Committees on Finance. It is still being hoped to get the bills on the calendar within the next two weeks, so that they may be debated and published and criticized and

THE WEATHER.

Forecast for Virginia—Fair Monday and Tuesday; rising temperature Monday in north and west portions; moderate west winds.
For North Carolina—Fair Monday and Tuesday; rising temperature Monday in west and central portions; moderate west winds.

Special Local Data for Yesterday.
12 noon temperature	24
P. M. temperature	24
Maximum temperature up to 8	24
P. M. temperature up to 8	24
Mean temperature	23
Normal temperature	23
Deficiency in temperature	11
Deficiency in temperature since March 1	392
Accum. deficiency in temperature since January 1	312
Deficiency in rainfall since March 1, 1911	6.51
Accum. deficiency in rainfall since January 1, 1912	1.11
Local Observation for M. Yesterday.
Temperature	24
Humidity	52
Wind direction	S. W.
Wind velocity	Clear
Weather	Clear

CONDITIONS IN IMPORTANT CITIES.
Place.	Ther. H. T. L. T. Weather.
Alexandria	10 14 6 Clear
Atlanta	20 24 12 Clear
Atlantic City	14 26 12 Clear
Boston	16 20 11 P. cloudy
Buffalo	16 20 11 P. cloudy
Calgary	26 28 8 P. cloudy
Charleston	30 48 20 P. cloudy
Chicago	10 16 4 Clear
Denver	26 28 8 P. cloudy
Duluth	10 16 4 Clear
Galveston	26 36 20 Cloudy
Havre	30 48 20 Clear
Jacksonville	42 56 42 Clear
Kansas City	20 22 9 Clear
Louisville	10 16 4 Clear
Montgomery	26 28 8 P. cloudy
New Orleans	36 38 22 Clear
New York	12 20 12 Clear
Norfolk	26 28 8 P. cloudy
Oklahoma	26 28 8 P. cloudy
Pittsburgh	2 8 0 Clear
Raleigh	24 28 24 Clear
St. Louis	16 18 15 Clear
St. Paul	16 18 15 Clear
San Francisco	60 62 46 Cloudy
Savannah	36 46 36 Clear
Spokane	26 28 8 P. cloudy